CAREER OBJECTIVE

Seeking an entry-level position

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

Excellent communication skills, Growing up as a curious individual with a knack for technology, I delved into computers and programming early on, evolving into a tech-savvy enthusiast. Hindered by the rigid Indian education system, my interests were momentarily paused. Initially attracted to hacking, my journey took an unexpected turn towards cognitive science - the intriguing fusion of psychology and computer science. Recognizing the challenges within this field in India, I persisted in pursuing my passion. Presently, I'm enrolled in a bachelor's program in computer science. I'm drawn to technology and business-related topics, aspiring to blend these disciplines in my career journey.
